3rd Eastern Africa Agroecology Conference

Call for Abstracts

Introduction: The Conference Organizing Committee of the 3rd Eastern Africa Agroecology Conference to be held from 16th - 19th March 2027 calls for submissions and contributions from interested researchers, practitioners, policy makers and artists. The full title of the conference and theme are as indicated below.

Conference Title: 3rd Eastern Africa Agroecology Conference

Conference Theme: Accelerating Agroecological Transitions for Inclusive and Resilient Agri-Food Systems.

Sub themes:

1. Enhancing the availability, accessibility and affordability of quality ecological-organic inputs (organic fertilizer, pesticides, farmer seeds).
2. Technologies, innovations and management practices for sustainable natural resources systems (land & water management, holistic grazing, renewable energy, circular economy, mechanization, climate action, living lab approach, agroecological transitions).
3. Strengthening agroecological standards, certification and traceability systems to enhance trade and market access for Agroecological products (including processing, value addition, nutrition, food safety, environmental health).
4. Advancing policy frameworks, institutional arrangement and governance systems to scale Agroecology (domestication of Kampala CAADP Declaration, mainstreaming agroecology into education, incentives, role of private sector, extension pathways).
5. Finance and investment for scaling Agroecology.
6. Inclusive agroecological transitions: culture, empowerment and capacity development for diverse groups (youth, women, pastoralists, persons with disabilities, indigenous peoples, local communities).

Types of Abstracts

The conference will be held in hybrid format to provide an opportunity for researchers and academia to present their scientific outputs and for farmers, practitioners, policymakers and artists to share their experiences and/or advocate for progressive interventions and pathways.

The conference will welcome submissions and contributions in a variety of formats to encourage broad participation from researchers, practitioners, policymakers, and creative professionals. Submissions may be made under the following categories:

- i. Academic and Research Abstracts - Original research findings, scientific studies, and scholarly analyses.
- ii. Practitioner Presentations - Case studies, practical experiences, innovations, and lessons learned from implementation and practice.
- iii. Policy Publications, Reports, and Briefs- Policy analyses, technical reports, discussion papers, and policy briefs that inform decision-making and practice.
- iv. Creative Arts and Knowledge Sharing - Contributions that communicate ideas through creative expression, including spoken word, animations, music, graffiti, dance, paintings, photography, and related artistic formats.
